EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION
AS-T Associate Degree Transfer Major

The Associate of Science Degree in Early Childhood Education for Transfer meets the need of students transferring to a California State University intending to study in an ECE-related field.

Major Requirements

- ECE 1001 Introduction to ECE: Principles Practices and Standards………3 Units
- ECE 1002 Child Development………………………………………………………3 Units
- ECE 1003 Child, Family and Community………………………………………3 Units
- ECE 1500 Introduction to Curriculum…………………………………………3 Units
- ECE 1502 Serving Children and Families in a Diverse Society……………3 Units
- ECE 2000 Observation..................................................................................3 Units
- ECE 2002 Child Nutrition, Health, and Safety........................................3 Units
- ECE 2502 Practicum......................................................................................3 Units

Total Major Units 24

For an Associate Transfer Degree, students must complete
- The ECE Major requirements above
- The California State University General Education Breadth (CDUGE) or the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) requirements.
- Any needed transferable electives to reach a total of 60 CSU transferable units.

Double counting courses in GE and the major is permissible.

Please contact Counseling Services for more information: (530) 938-5353.