

Student Strengths

Written by Natalie Bradley, MS, CRC, Learning and Disability Specialist

These are just some examples of strengths you may have forgotten that you have. Try circling all the strengths that apply to you:

Your primary learning style: (If you don't know, take the Learning Style Survey)

Auditory Learner

Visual Learner

Kinesthetic (Hands-on) Learner

Math, Reading, Writing, Creative Arts

Basic Computer Skills: Keyboarding, Internet, Email

Advanced Computer Skills: Applications, programs, software)

Good Listener

Good Notetaker

Good Talker (verbal communication, expressive)

Good sense of humor

Highly Motivated

Hard Worker

Sensitive

Caring, Kind

Compassionate (a desire to take action to help others)

Trustworthy, Honest

Creative, Artistic

Enthusiastic

Organized

Punctual

Leader

Mediator (Peacemaker)