A Great Education. A Great Location. COS Fall Semester Will Begin August 29th

COS / Weed –Open registration for 2017/18 fall semester, winter intersession, and spring semester classes at College of the Siskiyous is open. Early registration is recommended to get the classes you need and want. Visitors to the COS website will now notice a newly updated and refreshed website (www.siskiyous.edu). From the homepage, students may access their “mySiskiyous” account, register for classes, view the 2017/2018 ‘REG365’ class schedule, and more.

COS provides transfer classes to four-year colleges, associate degrees, vocational certificate programs, job skills classes, and courses for personal enrichment and recreation. The College offers many services to students including advising and counseling, two residential lodges, tutoring, financial aid, and an onsite Campus Gift and Book Shop where students may also purchase their books and supplies.

Beginning with the 2017/2018 academic year, COS will be utilizing a “university calendar” schedule. COS is not just offering summer, fall and spring classes, a brand-new winter intersession has been added. Students who plan to register for classes as a full time or new to COS student should contact the COS Counseling and Advising Department at (530) 938-5353 to schedule an appointment with staff that will provide you with the help you need to successfully complete your academic and career goals.

For more information about College of the Siskiyous visit our website at www.siskiyous.edu or call (530) 938-5555 or toll-free (888) 397-4339. Are you new to COS? Call (530) 938-5847 to schedule a tour of the Weed Campus. Payment of class fees is suggested when registering. Don’t wait...Register Today!! The fall semester will begin Tuesday, August 29th.
