COS Music Department Partners with Community to Present Handel's Messiah

Weed / COS - The College of the Siskiyous Music Department in partnership with Yreka High School, the Berean Church of Grenada, and the Church of the Nazarene in Yreka proudly presents "Handel's Messiah," a community sing-along event directed by Eric Seiler and David Blink, and chorus rehearsal director, Karen Clark.

Three concerts have been scheduled: In Weed at the College of the Siskiyous Kenneth W. Ford Theater (800 College Avenue) on Thursday, December 14; in Grenada at the Berean Church (512 6th Street) on Friday, December 15; and, in Yreka at the Church of the Nazarene (415 Evergreen Lane). All three performances will begin at 7 p.m.

During the concerts will be a community sing-along on the choruses. Guests are invited to bring books. There may also be a limited number of scores (G. Schirmer version) for sale at the door for $10 each. Admission is free although donations will be accepted.

For more information about the concerts contact David Blink by calling (530) 938-5321 or send an email to dblinc@siskiyous.edu. The Weed Campus may also be reached by calling toll-free, (888) 397-4339.
