Cult Classic “Little Shop of Horrors” to Open on COS Stage This Weekend

Weed / COS - A singing plant....a daring, albeit reluctant hero...a sweet girl...a demented dentist. Come to Mushnick’s Florist Shop and meet them all. Little Shop of Horrors is the sci-fi smash musical devouring the hearts of audiences for over 30 years. Little Shop of Horrors has been a cult classic for years with the original movie released in 1960 and the Off-Broadway premiere in 1982. These were followed by a remake of the film in 1986 which featured current day stars like Rick Moranis, Ellen Green and Steve Martin. Finally, in 2003 it made its official Broadway debut.

Little Shop of Horrors (Music by Alan Menken, Book and Lyrics by Howard Ashman) tells the story of a down-and-out floral assistant who becomes an overnight sensation when he discovers an exotic plant with a mysterious craving, his love for his co-worker, and how his plans go awry when the plant’s demands grow a little too wild!

Performances are scheduled on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 9, 10, 16, and 17 at 7 p.m. and on Sunday afternoons, November 11 and 18 at 3 p.m. in the Weed Campus Kenneth W. Ford Theater. Tickets may be purchased in advance from the Weed Campus Bookstore or the Yreka Campus Business Office. Cost to attend the performance is $10 Student/Senior/Children under 12 or $15 Adults. A Family 4-Pack is also available for $35. (A processing fee will be applied to all ticket sales).
