The Precious Thread: COS Photo Alliance Exhibition

Weed / COS - The College of the Siskiyous (COS) Photo Alliance will present "The Precious Thread," an exhibition of fine art photography in the College of the Siskiyous Art Gallery. Featured artists will include COS advanced photography students Sarina Bray, Maia Caberte, Rodney Clark, Eden Jerue, Kendall Knight, and Leiyana Song.

The Artists have each built a series focusing on their own individual ideas and worked together to self-curate the exhibition around their chosen theme.

Some of their concepts include the building of memories, the people who we are connected to, and perceptions of the natural world. Artist Leiyana Song states about her series (photographs of friends who are wearing clothing she created), Ambiguous (Up for Interpretation), "I knew I wanted to imitate a raw and natural feel to my pieces. It wasn't until I let go of my idea of what could be that something I felt proud of came out."

"The Precious Thread" will be on exhibit May 1 - 17 with an opening reception to be held May 1 from 12 to 2 p.m. The COS Art Gallery is open Monday thru Friday during regular Library hours and is located in the Learning Resources Center (LRC – Building 2) at the Weed Campus.
