

UB Student Leaders to DC in March 2005

College of the Siskiyous' Upward Bound student leaders, participated in an Student Leadership Tour of Washington DC March 12-16, 2005.

Highlights included:

- Touring the Smithsonian,
- Lincoln Memorial
- The White House
- The Holocaust Museum
- Riding the Metro,
- Meeting with Congressman Wally Herger and his Legislative Assistant Darrin Thacker.

Drew Difuntorum (Happy Camp High School), Stephanie Rokes, and Angela White (both from Yreka High School) found being on Capitol Hill a very interesting and great learning experience.

Recently, Congressman Herger has decided to write a letter of support to help restore funding of TRIO programs like Upward Bound which is proposed to be eliminated by President Bush's 2006 budget.
